Totally Free, Online Menu Posting

What It's All About

It really is as simple as it sounds. You send us your menu, we post it on our site. That's it. It is totally free to get on the site, totally free to use it. We don't charge anyone anything. Once you are listed on MenuLizard, your listing will usually be in the top 3 Google results for a search for your restaurant. Our listing provides customers with super easy access to your menu, and all of your contact information, address, services etc. If your restaurant doesn't already have it's own web site, your MenuLizard listing can be your sole web presence. If you do have a web site, a MenuLizard listing can compliment it nicely.

How Do I Sign Up?

There is no Sign Up. Just mail or fax us your menu!

More Info

Your listing can be removed at any time. The web address of your listing will never change, so you may advertise it as you see fit. You can post it on your storefront windows, or print it on your paper menu (so customers with outdated paper menus will have a place to go to view an up to date menu). Updating your listing is as easy as sending us an email, or mailing us a new menu. No restaurant is too small, we post menus from all sized restaurant.
